

ALL READY FOR THE FAIR

THE EXHIBITION PROMISES TO BE A BIG SUCCESS. Nearly All of the Space in the Main Building Taken—Some of the Features.

Preparations are nearly completed for the State Fair which begins on Tuesday next, continuing for five days, and unless all indications fail, it will be the best that has ever been held in the State.

There will be exhibits of almost every article that can be mentioned, the wholesale manufacturers to a large extent, arriving all taken space. The exhibits promise to be exceptionally fine and more numerous than ever before.

THE DEEP RUN HUNT CLUB. History of the Formation of This Popular Organization.

Its almost unprecedented growth. The best and most substantial citizens of the city identified with it. Ladies Who Attend Its Semi-Weekly Meetings—A Complete List of Active and Contributing Members.

One of the most popular social organizations of this section of Virginia is the Deep Run Hunt Club. The club was organized in 1882, among the first movers in the enterprise being Captain Philip Haxall, Major Otway S. Allen, Dr. P. A. S. Brine, and Messrs. William Rueger and S. H. Hancock.

In February, 1884, a charter was received, there being twenty-three active members of the club, with the following officers: President, Captain Philip Haxall; Vice-President, Major Otway S. Allen; Treasurer, Mr. William Rueger; Secretary, P. A. S. Brine; Master of Hounds, S. H. Hancock.

The club will commence hunting on the 16th of this month, and will hold the following meets during October: On the 16th at the kennels, 20th at the kennels, 23rd at the kennels, 26th at the kennels, 29th at the kennels.

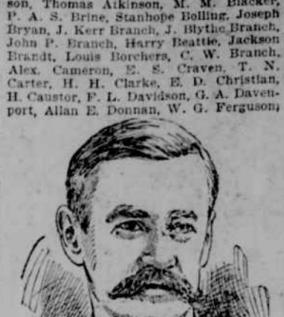

Delightful quarters were secured for the club in the late residence of Major Hancock, located on the Staples' Mill road, about three miles from Richmond, and possession was taken on July 1st, 1884.

The club grew rapidly, and although not three years have elapsed since it was formed, the membership has increased ten-fold, the accession numbering among them the best riders of the country.

Among the crack riders who follow the hounds and never far behind at the finish may be mentioned M. M. Blacker, S. H. Hancock, W. M. Leathley, George K. Lee, William Rueger, Dr. Charles L. Siegel, Graham B. Gibson, Allen Potts, Philip A. S. Brine, J. T. Anderson, Thomas N. Carter, Harry T. Beattie, Dr. R. L. Tritton, Dr. Joseph A. White, Dr. Isaiah H. White, A. H. Thiermann, Barton H. Grundy, and P. S. Davidson.

The first race meet of the club was held last spring. A handsome silver cup was offered at the prize to be competed for. It was won by Mr. S. H. Hancock after an exciting contest.

The following is a complete list of the active and contributing members of the club: LIST OF MEMBERS. Active—Major Otway S. Allen, J. T. Anderson, J. M. Antrim, J. R. J. Ander-
